To Become All Things To All Men.

From a humble stable in Bethlehem, to a lonely Cross on Calvary, to a glorious resurrection—so it was that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, by His life and teaching became all things to all men.

Through the passing ages, man has obscured the beautiful example of Christ's selfless giving by war and dissension. Conference tables offer meaningless solutions and the world seems lost in chaos.

Then from the Eternal City comes the voice of Christ's Vicar calling an ecumenical council to cure the ills of our divided world. As preparation for this meeting, that it may establish anew the reign of Christ in the modern world, we Centralites have offered to God our daily living to become all things to all men.

We Traversed Many Roads.

Base of Operations

Through the untiring efforts of her past and present administrators, Central has attained the status of a leader in the field of Catholic education.

Since the day of its purchase in 1939, the one-time mansion has undergone many innovations. Recent ones include the Main Office which has been relocated in more spacious headquarters and a new sewing room on the third floor.

To accommodate the record enrollment of 1281 students eight classes of freshmen were assigned to homerooms in the annex.

Most Reverend Joseph McShea. D.D., Ph.D.

Under the kindly guidance of the Most Reverend Joseph McShea, the Allentown diocese was organized into a working system. Despite the countless demands on his time necessitated by the various steps of organization, Bishop McShea, graciously condescended to open the first Teachers' Institute of the newly formed diocese by the celebration of Holy Mass at Sacred Heart Church. In separate meetings of teachers, the Bishop gave words of encouragement and guidance to his teachers. Several parishes visited Reading to administer Confirmation at the various parishes and to build the cornerstone of the new parochial school of St. Paul Parish.

Reverend Raymond J. Leichner

Untiring in his pursuit of excellence in the field of education, the Reverend Raymond J. Leichner directed the growth of the school. Interested in the future of the school, he was a dedicated educator. Father Leichner's concern for the students' academic achievement and top performance was evident in his role as president of schools. His diligent efforts and tireless devotion to the education of the youth of the Archdiocese of Boston and the surrounding areas of Massachusetts and an opportunity to provide the chief means Father offers in forming a strong character and morality of the day.

Dedicated To Christ

Working hours extend well past regular hours for Central's priest faculty. Teaching at St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing occupied Fathers Bednarek and Dickson. Under the magic wand of Father Zolondek the nurses' chorus sings in harmony. Father Forst comes to the aid of the choir. Forensic moderator, Father Kelly, worked hard to add more honors to Central's record. Head of the Allentown Forensic Union, Father Forst arranged several practice sessions. Besides his duties at Central, Father Forst is also on the athletic board of the diocese.

A bell announced the beginning of a busy day, thirty three Sisters met to plan the oncoming classes. Holding together several outstanding Catholic colleges and universities, the Sisters are well prepared for our quest for knowledge.

Among the three Sisters teach religion, the Sisters give the touch of Catholicism to science literature social studies—all courses that lead to an appreciation of the world as of life.

Sister M. Alethia participated in the evaluation of Haverford Senior High School. Sister was a member of the English committee. Science lectures attracted the Franciscan Sisters while demonstrations in modern math were attended by the Bernardine Sisters.

This We Believe

Our first belief is that there is a God who created the world and all that is in it. We believe that God is the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and that He is the God of all people. We believe that God loves all people and that He wants all people to know Him and to love Him.

Our second belief is that we should live with a complete devotion to God. We believe that we should have a pure heart and that we should be free from all sin. We believe that we should be obedient to God and that we should be kind to all people. We believe that we should be honest and that we should be true. We believe that we should be brave and that we should be strong. We believe that we should be patient and that we should be gentle. We believe that we should be kind and that we should be loving. We believe that we should be faithful and that we should be true. We believe that we should be brave and that we should be strong. We believe that we should be patient and that we should be gentle. We believe that we should be kind and that we should be loving. We believe that we should be faithful and that we should be true.

Numbers Racket

As the demand for skilled mathematicians increases, Centralites who pursue the field of mathematics battled manfully for the competent direction of the Bernardine Sister.

Contestwise this department scored a win when James Duchynski claimed a spot on the student honor roll of the October issue of School Science and Math. Jim submitted a correct solution to a problem during the spring of the previous year. For the fourth consecutive year, Centralites entered the Mathematics Contest of the Society of Actuaries.

Foreign Intrigue

The first of the series of the "Foreign Intrigue" is a story of a woman who is a spy for the British. She is a beautiful woman, and she is very clever. She is a very good friend of the British, and she is a very good enemy of the Germans. She is a very good friend of the British, and she is a very good enemy of the Germans. She is a very good friend of the British, and she is a very good enemy of the Germans.

The woman in the dark dress is a spy for the British.

Eda Schifalacqua

Valedictorian

Top student of the Class of '62, Eda Schifalacqua took an active part in all affairs at Central. As co-editor of Centralma, Eda devoted much time and thought to the development of the theme and the organization of the book. Other major extra-curricular activities in which Eda shared included her position of vice president of the National Honor Society, a trophy winning ability in original oratory and a spot on the weekly radio program. Eda also filled the position of council member for Senior 4. Hard study paid off in the form of a full tuition scholarship to Seton Hill College and an honor scholarship to Trinity College. Eda's future plans are not completed as we go to press, but she hopes to major in romance languages at one of these colleges.

Three book review sessions. From left to right: A. Boland, I. Endter and P. Garito all of whom earned fifteen or more first honor cards.

Robert Flehn

Salutatorian

Another honor student in the class, Robert Flehn found that his position of highest boy in the class made him responsible for the salutatory oration this June. Serving as president of the National Honor Society and as council member for Senior 2, Robert still found time to participate in the activities of the forenoon union. After school hours, his favorite habitat is the journalism room where he serves as page one editor. His by-line is also frequently found on the sports page of Hillside Echoes. Youth day found Robert busy at City Hall when he assumed the duties of mayor for the day. In the fall Robert hopes to matriculate at St. Joseph's College. The electronics physics course will play an important role in his future plans.

Activities

Let Christ be a host lifted in me,
in places where otherwise
no Host comes.
Let me show His beauty,
His simplicity, His attractiveness
in laughter, in tenderness,
in my interest in others' affairs
in seeing the good in others,
fostering their aspirations,
making myself, my heart—
not only the outside of me—
accessible to them

Compiled And Edited

Despite limited after-school hours, S. M. Alethia and her hard working staffers turned out eight issues of a top notch publication. Proof of its excellence can be seen in the awards received during the past year—all-Catholic Honor Award from the National Catholic Scholastic Press, First Place Honor Ratings from Pennsylvania Scholastic Press, National Scholastic Press and Columbia Scholastic Press, and the Quill and Scroll "A" and International Honor Award.

Special highlight of the current school term was a 40 page book, Many Things. This first school magazine included short stories, poems, and other writing ventures gleaned from English classes. Of special interest to most Centralites, the November issue of Hillside Echoes, a six page edition, contained up-to-date accounts of various colleges and universities. Ivy league schools, middle-sized colleges, and small comparatively unknown institutions were all represented.

Editor in-chief, T. Wright and I. Endter participated as speakers at the Villanova Press conference while Sister Alethia acted as moderator of a panel.

Living Our Faith

The first of the month of May was a very special day for the members of the St. Mary's Church. The members of the church were gathered together for a special service to celebrate the feast of the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. The service was held in the church and was attended by a large number of the members of the church. The service was a very beautiful one and was a great help to the members of the church.

Club Time Is Fun Time

The club time is a very important part of the school day. It is a time when the students can relax and enjoy themselves. The club time is also a time when the students can learn new things and develop their interests.

Noted for a long time, the Future Teachers Club presented a program of 43 projects. Various activities were presented, including a play, a skit, and a song. The club members also participated in a variety of other activities, including a dance and a game.

Let me reveal Christ in my games
in honesty, in justice,
in fairness, in courtesy
in kindness, in good sportsmanship,
in my attitude of fair play
Let me reveal Christ even when I fail,
in humility, in acknowledging my fault,
without servility, without morbidity,
without the vanity which is amazed
by its own failure,
But asking His help and going on,
trusting Him

As noted in last Term's program, the band and the "Wonderful World of Music" have been "tested" by the "audience" and found to past years the "audience" has responded to the music and the past ten performances. One of the features is the "Wonderful World of Music" with the concert band introduced the "section" of the program with the Liberty Bell March. Among the Bell Tones, the ever popular Scarlet Ribbons was enjoyed by the audience. All the themes of the "section" were played to provide a "section" and well planned finale for the program. Again the music proved to be a delightful, entertaining program.

Early in May, Catholics gathered in the gymnasium, Mary, God's mother and ours. The Most Queen dressed in royal white and all other and her senior attendants wearing royal dresses entered the gym as the entire student body sang Marian hymns. At an altar, the statue of Mary stood in the front of the gym. The Most Queen crowned Our Lady queen of Central. After a brief sermon, the devotion ended with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

An End And A Beginning.

We have spent twelve years preparing. These leaves recount only the last and the best. With this we start out on a new adventure.

As you gaze upon the soft blue, whether you reminisce in tranquility or with the feeling of "it might have been" depends upon how deeply you have permitted yourself to become involved in the world around you. Only by selfless giving in imitation of the Divine Model can man completely find himself.

We of the staff of Centraima have tried to use as our theme the outstanding principle by which we hope to govern our future days.

With grateful recognition, we thank the following for their aid in preparing our book:

Sister M. Magdelaine, our moderator, coordinator and motivating force.

Father Lechner, the power behind it all.

The Senior Staff, who spent endless hours helping us.

Loring Studios.

F. A. Woerner, Inc.

Art Engraving.

Arnold's Book Bindery.

Seniors whose efforts were appreciated.

Junior staff who did so many of the odd jobs for us.
